

The aims of our curriculum are that through teaching opportunities based on the children's interest and our In the Moment Planning, all children feel safe and happy, become engaged, confident, and resilient.

We believe that children grow and develop when they have access to a well thought out learning environment and engaged adults.